

May 31, 2017

10:00am - 2:30pm

McHenry Library, UCSC

CHARTING THE LIBRARY'S FUTURE

Join us for a discussion on how universities create, consume, and share knowledge

10-10:30am

Welcome and Opening Remarks by Chancellor George Blumenthal and University Librarian Elizabeth Cowell

10:30-noon

Panel Discussion

MacKenzie Smith, University Librarian at UC Davis
Expanding Research Support in University Libraries

Günter Waibel, Associate Vice Provost and Executive Director of the California Digital Library
This Magic Moment: Are We Coming Together, or Falling Apart?

Jeffrey MacKie-Mason, University Librarian at UC Berkeley
Bringing Together People, Information and Technology: Connected Learning

Noon-1:00pm

Lunch provided for all registered attendees

1:00-2:30pm

Lightning Talks and Discussion Session

The Changing Practices of Scholarly Work

Sylvanna Falcón, Professor of Latin American and Latino Studies
Danielle Crawford, Graduate Student in Literature and former CART Fellow
Jody Greene, UCSC Professor and Director of the Center for Innovations in Teaching and Learning (CITL)
Christy Caldwell, Research Support Services Librarian

Sponsored by the University Library, the Institute for Humanities Research, the Librarians Association of the University of California, and the Office of the Campus Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor

More information and registration: library.ucsc.edu/charting-the-future
